Overview

The Coolabah Short Term Income Fund (Managed Fund) is a low volatility, short-term interest strategy that targets annual returns above the RBA cash rate plus 1.5% to 3.0% pa net of fees with an average A credit rating and near-zero interest rate duration risk.

The Coolabah Short Term Income Fund (Managed Fund) provides exposure to a diversified portfolio of cash securities, floating-rate notes and hybrid securities. It may invest in fixed-rate bonds provided the interest-rate is hedged to floating.

It cannot invest in equities, property, sub-prime loans, use leverage or short-sell.

The fund is managed by Coolabah Capital Investments, which manages more than $10 billion with a team of over 47 executives, including 11 portfolio managers and traders, and 15 analysts as at August 2024. Coolabah was established in 2011 and offers a range of leading short- and long-duration fixed-income strategies.

The fund harnesses Coolabah’s highly active investment style to find mispriced bonds that can deliver capital gains in addition to their innate interest or yields.

The fund focusses on liquid, investment-grade bonds, with an average credit rating in the A to AA bands, that are tradeable in all environments, including stressed market conditions.

The Coolabah Short Term Income Fund (Managed Fund) is available on the Cboe Australia securities exchange with the ticker FRNS.
